Obtaining your Visa

After your acceptance to your school, follow these steps to obtain your F-1 student visa for study in the United States:

- 1) Get a Form I-20: Once you receive acceptance to an SEVP-certified school and provide evidence of financial support, as well as any other supporting documents, that school's designated school official will send you a Form I-20, "Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Status."

- 2) Pay the I-901 Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) Fee. Click here to pay.
- 3) Apply for a visa to travel to the United States: You can apply for a visa to travel to the United States at your designated U.S. embassy or consulate. Click here to find the U.S. embassy in your country. Be sure to follow their instructions.
- 4) Prepare for your visa interview. Click here for guidance.
- 5) Once your visa is approved, you may make preparation to enter the U.S.
- 6) If your visa is denied, you may reapply for another interview according to the Embassy's instructions. You may need to defer your attendance contact ESLI at our Arrival Preparation Page select/Defer/Cancel option.

Making Arrival Arrangements

Travel Safety

If your travels require for you to overnight in your port of entry city:

- Book your hotel before you leave your home country.
- Ask your hotel about whether they have a shuttle service from the airport.
- Be careful who you trust for help at the airport.
- If take a taxi, make sure that your car has a clearly written 'TAXI' sign.
- Ask your driver how much the ride will cost before you start to drive.

Airport Pickup

- To make life easy, ESLI offers airport pick-up service, for a fee.
- ESLI will pick you up from Louisville International Airport (SDF).
- Please schedule your pick-up after purchasing your ticket on our Arrivals Preparation Page at the Arrival Preparation Page. You will receive confirmation from ESLI.
- When you schedule your pick-up, you will be able to download an airport map and other important information.

Please note that arrivals later in the evening will require a hotel room

Insurance

- Health insurance is mandatory while studying in the U.S. or Canada. All ESLI students are required to have insurance through the plans offered at their campus.
- Important: Insurance does not cover all medical expenses! Contact your ESLI program director for more information.

Emergencies

- If you need non-emergency medical attention upon arriving in the U.S. it is strongly recommended that you choose from one of the providers on the in-network list. Out-of-network providers may not take student insurance. Please contact your program director for further assistance.
- If you need emergency medical attention upon arriving in the U.S. or Canada, dial 911.

Immunizations

- Immunizations are not required at ESLI-Sullivan

Prescription Drugs

Students bringing prescription medication into the USA should bring a letter from their doctor stating what it is, what medical condition it is for, and the quantity in their possession. The note must be in English. Be aware that some medications used in other countries are considered illegal in the USA and are not permitted and could be confiscated. Check with the U.S. embassy or consulate regarding such items.
